

Lunar Volvelle

To assemble volvelle:

Cut out each disk and fix the two together at their centers so that they can pivot freely. Brass fasteners are recommended.

To use volvelle:

In the light of a bright moon, read the time from a sundial. Next, rotate the volvelle's index to the time read on the dial. At this point, the current lunar age mark (days since the new moon) will indicate the true hour.

