

Equatorial Ring Dial

To assemble dial:

Cut along solid lines; fold along dotted ones. Once cut out, tightly fold the sliding nodus around the declination scale.

When finished, the equatorial ring, meridian ring, and declination scale should comfortably rest at 90° folds relative to the next element in. Suspend dial from latitude of use.

